

Underline the state of being verbs in the following sentences. The first one is done for you.

1. My mother is a judge.
2. She was the first lady judge in our town.
3. Now there are more lady judges.
4. Last week, we were in her court.
5. It was so interesting!
6. I am very proud of my mother.
7. I, too, will be a judge one day.
8. My friend Bill is also keen to study law.