

1. Write the number of the word next to the definition:

1. suppose _____ The natural world around us, including air, water, and land.
2. environment _____ luckily
3. climate _____ bringing or gathering things together in one place.
4. fortunately _____ guess, imagine, think, believe.
5. to collect _____ weather conditions.
6. exactly _____ Being completely right or accurate.

1. increase _____ New, latest, fresh.
2. frequently _____ Happening all the time, repeatedly.
3. actually _____ At last, in the end. The last part or conclusion of something.
4. recent _____ Really, in fact. Something that is true.
5. finally _____ To become more or get larger.
6. probably _____ Likely, possibly, maybe.

1. select _____ Ideas about God, beliefs and traditions that people follow.
2. to invent _____ To do or complete a task or activity.
3. religion _____ Accurate or without mistakes; being right.
4. service _____ Help, support, assistance
5. correct _____ To design something new that didn't exist before.
6. carry out _____ To pick or choose something from a group.

1. create _____ Everything, all together, not just some parts, generally.
2. proper _____ A small part or fact about something that gives more information.
3. on the whole _____ To find something new or learn about something for the first time.
4. detail _____ The way people act, what they do in different situations.
5. to discover _____ Something that is correct, right or suitable.
6. behavior _____ To make something new, which didn't exist before.

1. event _____ Being responsible for something.
2. healthy _____ Making something or someone better than before.
3. in charge of _____ Something that happens, like a party, show, or game.
4. improve _____ To decide not to do something that was planned or arranged.
5. to advise _____ Feeling good, strong, and not sick.
6. to cancel _____ To give suggestions or opinions to help someone make a decision or solve a problem.

- | | | |
|---------------------|-------|---|
| 7. ordinary | _____ | Telling how something or someone looks, feels, or works. |
| 8. to afford | _____ | Proposal, suggestion, opportunity. |
| 9. an offer | _____ | Having power to change or affect someone or something. |
| 10. influence | _____ | Regular, usual, typical. |
| 11. description | _____ | Important information or news shared with other people. |
| 12. an announcement | _____ | Having enough money to buy or do something. |
| | | |
| 13. allow | _____ | Being afraid about what might happen. |
| 14. nervous | _____ | To try hard or work to achieve something. |
| 15. a great deal | _____ | Completely different or contrary. |
| 16. survive | _____ | To let to do something. |
| 17. make an effort | _____ | An excellent agreement / a lot of something. |
| 18. opposite | _____ | To continue to live or exist despite of difficulties. |
| | | |
| 19. imagine | _____ | Something that happened or existed before the current time. |
| 20. previous | _____ | For the purpose of. |
| 21. in order to | _____ | To create pictures or ideas in mind. |