

Starter Unit - Verb to be : affirmative & negative

(Continuation from previous lesson)

Task 1 – Drag and drop the answer to fill in the blanks..

I'm not	is	isn't	We're	they're
are	is	aren't	I'm	He's aren't

- 1) I'm into sport and _____ good at basketball.
- 2) _____ interested in shopping.
- 3) Jack _____ into sport. _____ into video games.
- 4) Jack _____ on his computer 2 hours a day.
- 5) Jen and Ed like books and _____ into reading.
- 6) The dictionaries _____ on the shelf.
- 7) _____ not at school.
- 8) Michael and Nabihah _____ siblings. They're friends.
- 9) You cannot enter this shop. You _____ wearing your mask.
- 10) Tony Stark isn't Captain America . _____ the Iron Man.

Task 2 – Write the sentences correctly using affirmative or negative verb-to-be. Examples are shown below.

Examples :

0) Jackson – late for class (negative)

Jackson isn't late for class.

Puan Sakinah and her neighbours – good in cooking (affirmative)

Puan Sakinah and her neighbours are good in cooking.

1) I – into art (affirmative)

2) I – very good in sport (negative)

3) The dog – big and scary (affirmative)

4) The hamster – in the cage (negative)

5) We – from the same school (affirmative)

6) We – watching TV in the living room (negative)

7) They – shopping for new clothes (affirmative)

8) You – meeting friends at school (negative)
