“Amazonian warrior”

Read the text about “Amazonian warrior” and choose the correct option

Amazonian warrior

Carmen Rosa Panduro Ramirez was a Peruvian woman who fought in World War II. She was Born in Requena in 1918, she married Don Juan Manuel Peñaherrera Valera in 1936 and had two daughters. On August 11, 1941, during World War II, the Ecuadorian Rocafuerte artillery attacked the Peruvian post of Cabo Pantoja. Carmen Rosa, fearing the danger to the father of her daughters, Sergeant Rosa Panduro Peñaherrera, decided to join her husband in the fight.

Known as the heroine of Cabo Pantoja and Rocafuerte was arrested by Peruvian soldiers because it was forbidden to women, Carmen Rosa managed to find him and fought alongside her husband. She fought bravely, together with the soldiers towards victory. The Peruvian army, the gunboat "Amazonas" pursued the Ecuadorian troops. Carmen Rosa, in uniform, with a rifle in her hand, was ordered to disembark, but was forced to abandon the gunboat due to tears, anger and frustration.

Carmen Rosa passed away on November 11, 1989, after a long and painful illness. Her remains rest in the tomb of the Héroes Loretanos, in the San Miguel Arcángel General Cemetery. She left a well-documented record of the honor and bravery of the women of Loreto.
