

LESSON 3

Fill in the missing particles.

1. The telephone system has broken _____.
2. The Senator has been urged to break _____ all links with arms companies.
3. My aunt broke _____ when she heard the awful news.
4. Tanya broke _____ their relationship when she went to college.
5. Demonstrators broke _____ the police cordon.
6. She broke _____ their engagement only a few weeks before they were due to be married.
7. By late afternoon, a full-scale battle had broken _____ with rockets and grenades exploding regularly and bullets thudding into the walls.
8. I've decided to break it _____ with her.
9. The fire must have broken _____ during the night.
10. Thieves broke _____ the gallery and made off with paintings valued at over $2 million.
11. He broke _____ and wept when he heard the news.
12. The US has broken _____ diplomatic relations with the regime.
13. The children break _____ for the summer holiday next week.
14. The crowd broke _____ the barriers and onto the pitch.
15. She needed to break _____ of her daily routine and do something exciting.
16. After hours of fierce fighting, rebels broke _____ and captured the capital.
17. She broke _____ in tears when she heard the news.
18. Fighting had broken _____ between rival groups of fans.
19. She was late for the meeting because her car broke _____.
20. The marriage broke _____ just a few years later.
21. They had escaped to America shortly before war broke _____ in 1939.
22. The two countries have broken _____ diplomatic relations.
23. When do you break _____ for Easter?
24. But it was in the evenings that the worst fights broke _____.
25. As the funeral service began, Frances broke _____ and cried.
26. There was a police cordon around the site but the demonstrators still broke _____.
27. Late last night, fighting broke _____ between gangs of rival football fans.
28. Several demonstrators broke _____ the barriers despite warnings from the police.
29. In the wake of the bombing, the UK is threatening to break _____ diplomatic relations.

NOTES:
