

Push down	Hold on	turn on	take out	fit in	stick out
Lead to	switch off	fill up	throw away	lift up	sweep up
Mop up	pour in	get up	sit down	set up	turn off

I _____ the button to _____ the alarm. I _____ early to go to work. I _____ the light to see to get dressed. If I don't pay attention the label will of my jumper. In the kitchen I _____ a mug to be able to _____ my coffee.

After breakfast I _____ the lid of the coffee machine and I _____ the used coffee filter. If I drop the filter on the floor, I _____ the ground coffee. I _____ the floor if there is coffee on it. I check that my phone will _____ my pocket. I am ready to leave for work so I _____ the kitchen light.

On my way to work I stop to _____ with fuel. To do this I need to to the fuel tank nozzle.

On arrival at work I park my car and walk along the path that will _____ my office. Having made myself a coffee, I _____ to drink my coffee and _____ my workstation.

Link the phrasal verb to its use:

Turn on	at my desk
Pour in	the computer
Sit down	the finished windscreen from the support
Fit on	the rubber joint around the windscreen
Lift out	the liquid glass