

Going to the Doctor – exercise 1

Listening comprehension: following the conversation

Put five things in the order they happen in the conversation.

The patient asks the doctor a question.

The doctor gives the patient some advice.

The patient describes a problem he has been having recently.

The doctor gives the patient a piece of paper to take away.

The doctor suggests that the patient sees another medical professional.