

Name:

Comprehension

Non-Fiction Text Features

Identify the correct feature for each photo.

laptop: a small computer you can use on your lap desktop: a large computer you use on a desk keyboard: the buttons on a computer with letters and numbers Index Table of Content Glossary	Are You Ready?.....6 Chapter 1: MAP IT!.....9 Chapter 2: THE FLAG.....11 Chapter 3: THE MUSIC.....14 Chapter 4: LET'S EXPLORE.....15 Chapter 5: CREATE!.....23 Chapter 6: PRINTABLES.....28 Index Table of Content Glossary
Some animals live in the ocean. Animals can live in a barn. Animals can live in a tree. Animals live in the zoo. Bold Print Index Map and Diagram	Apple pie..... 14 Baking..... 2 Bread..... 7 Cooking..... 3 Corn dogs..... 8 Bold Print Index Map and Diagram

Drop these next to their meaning.

Text Box Diagrams Title Map

Helps readers see exactly what something looks like.

Provides important information we need to remember about the text.

Tells the reader what topic they are reading about.

Helps readers find out where things are located.

Read the following statements about features of non-fiction text and identify if they are True or False.

1. Bold print is darker than the rest of the text.
2. Index list important words and page numbers in order.
3. The table of content is listed in alphabetical order.
4. The glossary tells the meaning of words.

