Carl Hi, Julie. What are you ?

Julie Oh, hello, Carl. I'm looking at this . It's full of photos of . These days, everyone can become a . I think it's too .

Carl You're right, Julie. There are lots of new and these days. They one song, or in one film and then we never them work again. But still write about them, so they are still .

Julie Well, I think it's to be famous for singing a song or being on TV. I think that the are people who the world, like and world .

Carl I . But celebrities are about because there are so many and and have to them with something.

Julie I suppose it's because the want to read about famous people. Everyone wants to about the celebrities and their

Carl I think it's because everyone to be famous these days. That's why there are so many TV for the public to go on.

Julie That's sad. People should want to do more jobs. We need doctors, , and . We don't need more celebrities!
