The Protestant Reformation and Formation of Nation States

Fill-in-the-Blank

The Protestant Reformation led to the establishment of new _____ that were separate and apart from the Roman Catholic Church.

The Church had a great deal of political _____.

Some secular political leaders saw the religious reform movement as a chance to _____ from the political authority of the Holy Roman Empire.

Martin Luther himself was tried for heresy under the authority of the Holy Roman Emperor in _____.

Luther's trial was known as the _____.

The 30 Years War began in 1618 and ended in the _____.

The Peace of Westphalia is considered the beginning of the modern system of _____.

The war took a toll on Europe killing _____ of Germany's population.

WORD BANK

Power	20 percent	Nation states	Churches
Break away	Peace of Westphalia	Diet of Worms	1520

What was before Nation State?

Characteristics of City State:
- King stayed in a city but ruled _____ cities
- King's dominance would _____ overnight if one of his cities was captured by another King
- No definite territory, people belong to _____ cultures/languages.
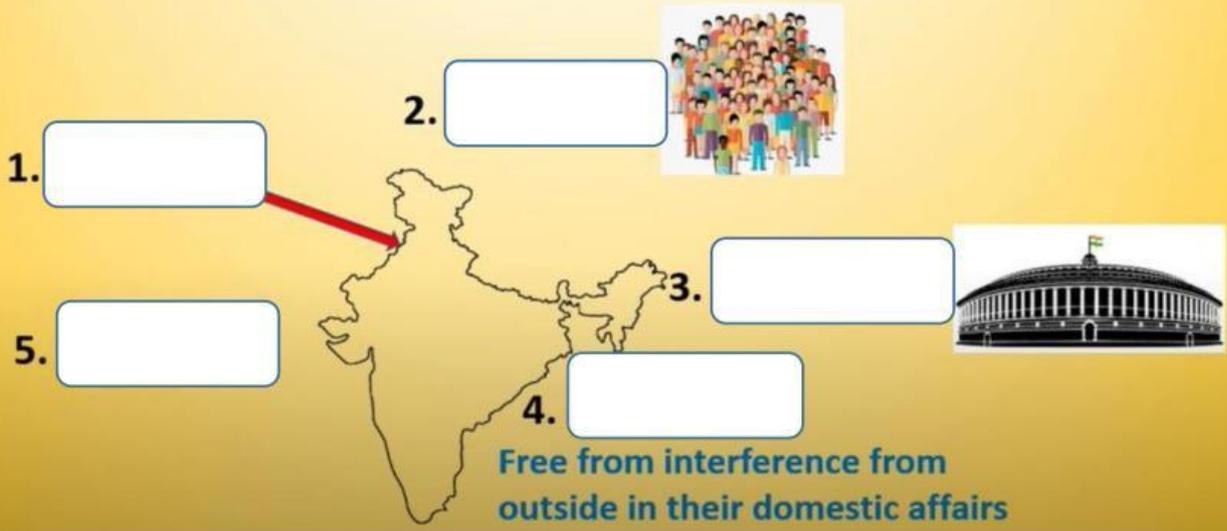

Nation - - When people are emotionally attached to other people in a specific _____, they form a nation.

Nation:
- Large group of people united by common elements
- Background, history, _____, language
- Living in a _____ area, territory or country

State

State is a country or territory considered as an organized political community under one government.

1. [____]

2. [____]

3. [____]

4. [____]

5. [____]

Free from interference from outside in their domestic affairs

Government   Border   Recognized   Sovereignty   Population

Nation State

Definition: A "Nation State" is a system of organization in which people with common identity live inside a country with firm borders and a single government

[____]

Where people have belongingness for the state and the other people and have a sense of pride

[____]

Territory
Citizen
Government
Sovereignty
Recognized

State   Territory   Nation

Nation State Vs City State

Main Difference

Based on the city, but their power extended beyond the city limits and could change

Has a definite Border   Nation State   City State