

I live in a house in Melaka. It isn't old or modern. It's normal Malaysian house. We can say it's near the sea. It takes about 10 minutes to go to the seaside on foot. We have two bedrooms, one living room and a dining room. Naturally, we also have a kitchen and a bathroom.

We don't have a garage. I live with my parents.

*In addition, our house has a small garden;
my parents spend their time there to grow vegetables and fruits.*
