

1 Listen and read. Is Mia happy or angry?

Mia: Where were you?

Luke: I was walking around the city. I was taking pictures of the interesting buildings. I was shopping in the fantastic malls. I was enjoying the morning. Why? Where were you?

Mia: I was lying next to the pool and I was writing postcards. Fuzzy was with me. He was watching me. At lunchtime I was sitting in a restaurant. I was waiting for you.

Luke: Well, I was sitting in a restaurant waiting for you!

Mia: Which restaurant?

Luke: The Lucky Star.

Mia: I wasn't waiting in the Lucky Star. I said the Happy Star. It's next to the Lucky Star!

Luke: Sorry!

2 True or false? Correct the false sentences in your notebook.

- 1 Luke was waiting at the hotel this morning.
- 2 Mia was writing postcards in her room.
- 3 Fuzzy was watching Mia.
- 4 Mia was waiting in the Happy Star.
- 5 Luke was waiting in the Happy Star.

3 Talk to a friend. Say what you were doing at these times.

- 1 last night at 8 o'clock
- 2 yesterday at lunchtime
- 3 on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock

I was doing my homework last night at 8 o'clock.

Grammar Stop

Look at the example:

Yesterday, I was eating at 2 o'clock.

We use the past progressive to talk about what somebody was doing at a certain time in the past. Do we use verbs ending in -ing or -ed?