

1 - Complete the table using the vocabulary below.

1. An actor in a film who does not say anything but is part of a crowd.
2. The words that are written down for actors to say in a film, and the instructions that tell them what they should do
3. An advertisement for a new film or television show
4. All the people who perform in a play, film
5. The recorded music from a film
6. Film that tells an exciting story about murder or crime
7. Films about real events
8. The events that form the main story of a book, film, or play
9. The person who gives instructions to the actors and other people working on a film or play
10. Someone who operates a camera for films or television
11. The money spent
12. Translation of the dialogue of a foreign-language film shown at the bottom of the screen.
13. A part of Los Angeles in California where films are made, often used to refer to the film industry in general
14. A critical article or report about a film
15. Short scene filmed to find out if the actor is good in a particular part
16. Gold statuette awarded annually in the United States by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences for outstanding achievements in films Official name Academy Award
17. The list at the start of the film that tells you the name of the film, the actors and director; the words on the screen at the end that tell you who played who, and who was the cameraman, set designer, etc.
18. "And the Oscar goes to...."

Vocabulary bank:

extra	director
Screenplay; script	Cameraman / camerawoman
hit	Hollywood
budget	Movie star
plot	Starring role
actor	trailer
Non-fiction films	cast
Film/movie review	Oscar
Traditional sentence said before handing out the "Oscar"	Subtitles

