Is there a mall on your street?

Common Mistakes

We go to the ^{bookstore} library to buy books.

1 Vocabulary: Public Places

A 5.1 Read World of English. How do you pronounce places 1-8? Listen to check. Name one real example you like of each.

World of English

Many English words are similar in your language. This means you can recognize them and only need to focus on spelling or pronunciation differences.

I really like the Japanese restaurant on my street. It's excellent.

- 1 a bar
- 2 a club
- 3 a hotel
- 4 a museum
- 5 a park
- 6 a restaurant
- 7 a stadium
- 8 a theater
- 9 a bookstore
- 10 a library
- 11 a mall
- 12 a movie theater
- 13 a racetrack
- 14 a river
- 15 a swimming pool

B 5.2 Match photos a-g in the brochure to places 9-15. Listen to check.

C 5.3 Listen and check the places you hear, 1-15. Which one didn't you hear? Which is the most interesting place in your opinion?

I think the most interesting place is probably the racetrack.

World of English

Many grammar items are similar in your language too. For example, the superlative = the most + adjective.

2 Grammar: There is / are + - ?

A 5.4 Read the grammar box and complete extracts 1-4 with a, any, are or no. Listen to check.

There is / are

Common Mistakes

There's a famous monument.
~~Have one~~ famous monument.
There are no / There aren't any public bathrooms.
~~No have~~ public bathrooms.
Is there a theater?
~~Have~~ a theater?

Grammar p. 126

- There _____ seven museums downtown.
- There's _____ famous racetrack at Churchill Downs.
- There aren't _____ swimming pools in downtown Louisville.
- There are _____ worries here.

B In pairs. A ask B four "Can you..." questions about Louisville. Swap roles.

go horse racing swim in the sea go to the movies go to the theater ski watch soccer go shopping stay in a nice hotel

Can you go to the movies?

Yes, you can. There are four multiscreen movie theaters in Louisville.

C MAKE IT PERSONAL Compare your hometown to Louisville. Find four differences.

In Louisville there's a baseball stadium but there's no baseball stadium in my hometown.

Workbook p. 24

3 Reading

A 5.5 Complete the brochure with a, an, is, are, or no. Listen to check.

COME TO MARKVILLE!

It's a great place to live. There are two museums and is a great public library. There is also a movie theater, so you can see a movie if you want. There's a mall, and there are lots of cool shops and is a historical bank. Markville has two hotels: there's a old traditional hotel and there is a new modern one, so you can choose where you stay. There are no clubs, but there is a bar inside one of the hotels. For food lovers, there are two delicious restaurants, one French, the other Mexican, and is an interesting café too. We're going green too! Downtown is only for pedestrians, so there are no cars to ruin the peace. See you soon!

B Which picture is Markville, 1 or 2? Explain.

It's picture ____, because...

C In pairs. A: Look at the pictures and answer. B: Don't look! Ask A questions to find four differences between the two pictures.

Is there a...?

Are there any...?

D MAKE IT PERSONAL In small groups, describe a town or neighborhood you know. Make a brochure.

__ is an OK place to live. There is a big...

1 I don't mind cleaning _____ bathroom.

3 I hate doing _____ laundry.

2 I love tidying _____ room.

4 I like washing _____ dishes.

B 5.9 Listen again. Underline the two most stressed words in sentences 2-4.

Words with meaning usually have more emphasis.
Form words like be / do / a / the / to / for / at usually don't have emphasis, so we say them faster.

C How do you feel about the chores in A? Write four sentences and practice saying them.

D In pairs, compare your feelings about the chores. Do you agree?

I don't mind washing the dishes, but I hate doing the laundry.

I don't agree. For me, doing the laundry is OK, but I hate...

E 5.10 Guess which chore people hate the most, and how many hours parents and kids spend doing chores. Listen to a survey report to check. Do you agree?

7 Listening

A 5.11 Read the ad for the show and look at the photo. Try to guess the answers to 1-3.

- 1 How old is she?
- 2 What does she love to do?
- 3 When does she do it?

B 5.12 Listen / watch and check your guesses. Do you think she has talent?

C MAKE IT PERSONAL Imagine you're on a talent show. Introduce yourself and say what you like doing and when you do it.

Good evening everybody, I'm _____ and I love to _____.

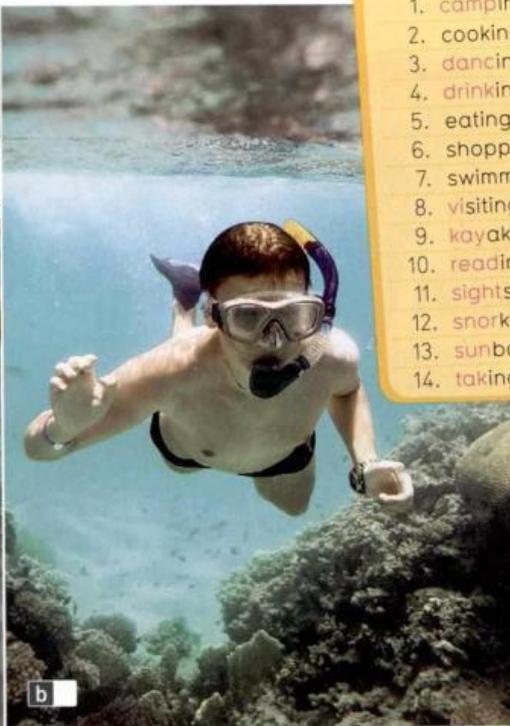

The Got Talent franchise is a very popular TV talent show. There are versions of it in more than 30 countries. Before the contestant shows his or her talent, there's always a short introduction of the person.

8 Vocabulary: Vacation

I think they really can't go on vacation together, because...

D MAKE IT PERSONAL Check the activities you like doing on vacation. Are you more like Emily or Josh? Why?

I love swimming, and I don't like camping, so I'm more like Emily.

World of English

Like can be both a preposition and a verb.
I'm like my mother. = similar to (preposition)
We both like relaxing. = enjoy (verb)

9 Reading

A 5.16 Quickly read two ads for vacations and answer 1-3.

- 1 Which countries are the ads for?
- 2 What kind of vacations are they?
- 3 When can you go?

Yoga Rica!

2 Discover our yoga retreats offered by local and international yoga professionals.

3 What to do: take a yoga class, meditate, read good novels, relax, have a massage, walk in the forest and drink herbal tea.

4 Don't miss our guided tours to an active volcano, waterfalls, rivers, mountains and beautiful beaches. Don't forget to finish your day with a gourmet vegetarian meal in our international restaurant.

When to go: we offer retreats all year round in Costa Rica.

Our cruises offer great options for everybody who enjoys being in the sun. What to do: swim, snorkel, or kayak in clear waters, visit ancient Mayan pyramids, walk through a fantastic rain forest, go sightseeing in small towns or dance all night. Don't miss the spectacular sunsets, the best margaritas of your life, and local cultural festivals. Don't forget to spend some time in a hammock on the ship, doing absolutely nothing!

When to go: Mexico is a year-round destination and the fun never stops.

B 5.17 Match the bold words in the ads to pictures 1-8. Listen, check and repeat the phrases.

C Re-read and answer C (cruise) or Y (yoga). Justify your answers. Which vacation:

- 1 offers more history and culture?
- 2 offers high quality food?
- 3 has great drinks?
- 4 do you think is more relaxing?
- 5 do you prefer?

I prefer the yoga retreat, because I enjoy relaxing on vacation. I don't like going to clubs and parties.

Common Mistakes
I enjoy ^{going} to go to the beach.

5.5 What's a staycation?

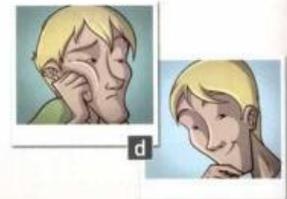

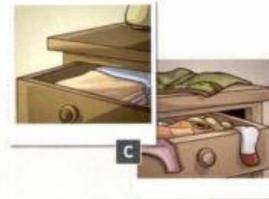

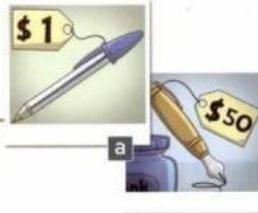

ID Skills Understanding instructions

A 5.20 Match the pairs of opposite adjectives to pictures a-d. Listen, check and test a partner.

- 1 boring – fun / interesting
- 2 expensive – cheap
- 3 safe – dangerous
- 4 tidy – messy

What's the opposite of "far"?

"Near."

B 5.21 Read about the two types of vacation, 1 and 2. Match them to their best definitions.

- You take a vacation at home. You go and stay in another person's home.

VACATIONS FOR LESS!

Couchsurfing helps you stay free of charge in about 250 countries around the world. Couchsurfing.org is an international network with more than 3 million members. Members offer people a place to stay in their homes. In return they can stay free at another member's home. Members are students and professionals. You can be a surfer or a host or both!

If you want to couchsurf here's what to do:

- Find a host who has positive references and a complete profile.
- Look for a host who has similar interests.
- Write a request to your potential host.
- Be a good guest.
- Don't be rude or messy! Help with the household chores.
- Write a reference as soon as possible to help other couchsurfers.

A staycation is a vacation that you spend at home! It's a way to have a rest from work and your routine without spending much money. Maybe it sounds boring, but it doesn't have to be. Here are some tips to make your staycation fun.

- Spend time at home. Invite friends to use your pool or sunbathe in your backyard.
- Visit your local parks and museums. Sometimes there are really cool things in your hometown.
- Find out about local festivals in your area.
- Change your routine—don't do what you usually do every day. Do something different. Get up late. Change shops. Eat different foods.
- Relax and don't think about work until your staycation is over.

C Re-read. Are these statements T (true) or F (false)?

- 1 Couchsurfing only happens in one country.
- 2 You don't pay to couchsurf.
- 3 Couchsurfers write references.
- 4 Staycations are always boring.
- 5 People on staycation don't go out.
- 6 On a staycation the idea is to do different things.

D 5.22 Listen to six sentences from the text and say staycation or couchsurfing after each.

E MAKE IT PERSONAL In pairs, talk about the things you like and don't like about both types of vacation. Use the adjectives in A.

In my opinion, a staycation is cheap.

Yes, but it can be boring.

World of English

English adapts very fast to changes in our world and new words are invented every day. Many are a combination of two words.

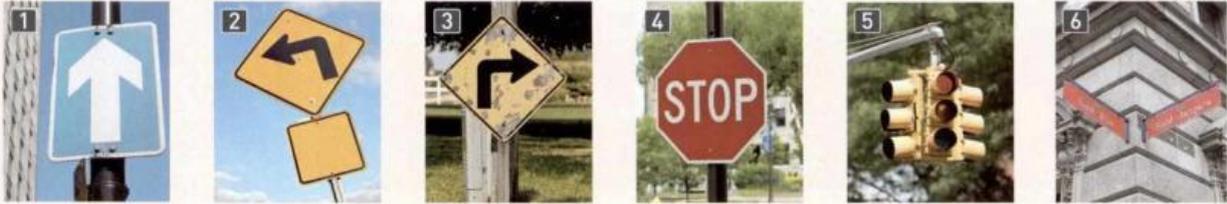

- > to couch + surf = couchsurf
- > a stay + vacation = staycation
- > an emotion + icon = emoticon

1 There Is / There Are + -

Singular	There is a park near the river.	There's no	mall near here.
		There isn't a
Plural	There are 20 people in the room.	There are no	animals in there.
		There aren't any

Use There is / There are to express "existence" in a physical space.
For negatives, use There is / There are + no or There isn't / There aren't + a / any.

There Is / There Are Ⓜ / Short Answers

	Ⓜ	Short Answers
Is	a bank near here?	Yes, there is.
	an answer to the question?	No, there isn't.
Are	there any tourists here?	Yes, there are.
	any good restaurants in the city?	No, there aren't.
Isn't	a swimming pool around here?	Yes, there is. / No, there isn't.
Aren't	any cups on the table?	Yes, there are. / No, there aren't.

Do not use contractions in Ⓜ short answers.

Common Mistakes

Is there a bank here?
there is
Yes, ~~there's~~.

2 Love / Like / Not Mind / Hate + verb + -ing

I	love	swimming.
You	like	camping.
Tom	likes	reading novels.
Nina	doesn't mind	waking up early.
We	hate	cleaning the house.
They	hate	playing golf.

Use these verbs + a gerund (verb + -ing) or + to + infinitive, except not mind:
I love to go out on weekends. = I love going out on weekends.

Use the gerund (not the infinitive) as the subject of a sentence.

Swimming is my favorite sport!

Playing tennis is a great exercise.

Common Mistakes

working
I don't mind ~~to work~~ late today.

3 Object Pronouns

I love animals, but I don't think they like me.

| 2 Where's a beautiful place for photos? | 6 Is there a romantic place in this city? |
| 3 What's a good place to go when it is rainy? | 7 What can tourists do at night? |
| 4 What's a good place when it is sunny? | 8 Is this city famous for anything? |

A DAY IN CHICAGO!

There's a lot to see and do, so come on, let's go! First, have breakfast at Valois Cafeteria on East 53rd Street. Barack Obama sometimes eats here, so you know it's delicious!

After eating, take the subway to Millennium Park. This is an enormous park downtown with lots of monuments, free events and beautiful views of the city and the lake. Before leaving, visit the 'Bean' and take a photo in the reflection.

After that, walk to the Art Institute to see old and modern art. When you leave the museum, cross the road to the historic Route 66, the first highway across America. There are hundreds of restaurants for lunch, there's a Russian café, an Irish pub and an American hot-dog restaurant.

Go to the Magnificent Mile after lunch and shop in the three big malls and then go up the tall John Hancock Observatory Tower, it's very romantic! Chicago is famous for the blues, so finally, you have to visit a blues club—at night try Buddy Guy's Legends, it's fantastic!

C Look at the underlined words and answer questions 1-3.

- | | |
|--|------------------------------|
| 1 Do adjectives come before / after a noun? | 3 Are adjectives pluralized? |
