1. Choose the correct adjectives.

1. Evelyn doesn't understand what's happening in this crime drama. The story is too complex / gripping / addictive for her.
2. This comedy isn't funny - it's excellent / embarrassing / entertaining. We both feel silly and uncomfortable watching it.
3. Carrie isn't coming to the theatre. She's watching a really addictive / imaginative / embarrassing soap opera and she can't leave home.
4. A good crime drama needs to be gripping / inspiring / moving, which normally means you don't know how it will end.
5. Have you seen the animation film The Lion King? It's so addictive / engaging / moving that everyone usually cries at the end.
6. I thought the film was fascinating / disappointing / gripping, to be honest. I was expecting it to be much better.
7. Walter found the documentary very inspiring / imaginative / addictive. Now he wants to volunteer to help homeless people too.
8. That was one of the most imaginative / embarrassing / complex things I've ever seen. How is it possible to be so creative?
9. I watched a documentary about how to make glass bottles. I know it sounds boring, but it was actually really moving / fascinating / disappointing.

Movie

2. Jake and Angela have just watched a film at the cinema. Complete their dialogue with the missing words. The definitions in brackets are given to help you.

J: What did you think of the movie, Angela? Excellent, eh?

A: Erm. Not really. The plot (what happens in the story) was really silly. For example, why did they go to the island with no food, no water and no map?

J: Because it's a film! What did you think about the _____ (what the actors do)? That was good. Some of the actors might even win an Oscar.

A: Well, I don't think they'll win any Oscars for the _____ (the text in a drama). What the _____ (people in a drama) said was clichéd and not very realistic. But I have to say that the _____ (music during a drama) was great.

It created a very frightening atmosphere. And the _____ (illusions created by computers) were also very good. The monsters on the island looked real.

J: I agree. And I think all of the _____ (clothes the actors wear) were good. I thought the _____ (the place or time of a drama) was really original and the _____ (how a drama finishes) was a big surprise for me. I really enjoyed the film.

A: Really? They're showing Hitchcock's The Birds next week. Maybe you'd like to see a really good film?
