

Fame Idioms: Use the words and expressions from the top to complete the idioms in the chart.

Up-and-coming	In the headlines	Taken off
Making headlines	Had connections	Got discovered
Gone downhill	Dropped out	Bad press
The right place at the right time

Ways to become famous	When you're becoming famous	When things don't work out
You _____ by someone.	Your career has _____.	Your career has _____.
You're just in _____.	You are always _____.	You get _____.
You _____.	You're _____ a lot.	You _____ of sight.
	You're an _____ star.

:harmon hall

TALISIS:

Defining idioms: Write the complete idioms from before in the line that has the correct definition for each idiom.

_____. To notice that a person has a special ability or quality and to help them to become successful.

_____. In the best position or place to take advantage of an opportunity, by mere luck or coincidence.

_____. Likely to achieve success soon or in the near future. The star of the moment.

_____. To suddenly become popular or successful.

_____. To succeed in reaching or achieving something. To be the center of attention constantly.

_____. Refers to important people who you know and who can help and advise you.

_____. To be criticized, especially in the newspapers, on television, or on radio.

_____. Things get bad only to gradually become worse.

_____. To disappear from public view; [for someone] to go into hiding.

_____. To be featured on the headlines of news articles, due to being particularly important or popular.

:harmon hall

TALISIS: