

Look at the chart. Complete the sentences. Use the words in the box.

As many more much than

- _____ people – 70 million – left the countryside of Country A for the city in 2015.
- The chart shows that the movement of people in Country B is generally _____ lower than in the other two countries.
- There were fewer _____ 20 million people moving from the country to the city in each of the three countries in 2000.
- By 2025, _____ people will be moving to cities in Country C than in each of the other two countries shown in the chart.
- In 2006, about 35 million people in Country A moved, while Country C experienced more or less the same movement _____ Country B, at approximately 15 million.