

taking good care of the children, making sure they are safe, happy, and healthy. helping to grow or develop.	Social skills the act of managing or directing.	Nurturing measures contributing to cleanliness and good health.	Education helping kids grow and learn in a way that is good for them, like playing and doing activities that make them smarter and better at talking and making friends.	Hygiene ideas generated by one person in a team could stimulate ideas in other people	Child development behaviors that include being friendly, helpful, cooperative, and considerate.	Cognitive Stimulation a formal process of learning in which some people consciously teach while others adopt the social role of learner.	Lesson planning interactive process that promotes learning.	Supervision thinking about fun things for the kids to do and learn, and making a plan so that the day is interesting and helps them learn new things.	Care a process through which you send messages to and receive messages from others.	Teaching talking and playing with the kids, being their friend, and helping them when they need it.	Communication talking to the moms, dads or guardians about how their child is doing, what they are learning, and any important things they should know.	Interacting with children cooperate, collaborate, communicate, and integrate care in teams.	Communication with parents or guardians the ability to produce new and valuable ideas	Team collaboration the skills of making objects, such as decorations, furniture, and pottery by hand	Record keeping reciting a story or reading from a book.	Story telling daily schedule a specific list of tasks that you plan to achieve over the course of a day.	Creativity the steps and actions taken by the teacher to optimize student learning, including the arrangement of the classroom environment, engaging students, and managing student behavior and discipline	Arts and crafts entering, transcribing, recording, storing, or maintaining information about children's development.	Daily schedule the action or state of including or of being included within a group or structure.	Special education support making sure every child, no matter how different, feels happy and comfortable, and helping them with whatever they need.	Caring to diverse needs helping children who may find some things harder than others, making sure they have what they need to learn and have fun in the best way for them.	Leisure Information obtained through the senses.	Classroom management free time not taken up with work.	Inclusion an opportunity to move in the natural environment	Observation activities that are engaged in for pleasure and include rules	First aid a state of complete physical, mental, and social well-being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity	Nutrition emergency care given immediately to an injured person	Outdoor play the process by which your body takes in and uses food	Games an understanding of another's feelings	Empathy listening, affirming, and empathizing with someone's feelings	Emotional support