

London's favourite market

World-famous Camden Market, along Regent's Canal, is extremely popular with both tourists and In fact, over 28 million visitors come every year. The market offers an incredible variety of stuff, with over 280 market stalls. Shoppers often come to buy vintage orclothes here. It's also a great place to buy second-hand music, unusual gold and silveror even get aor a piercing! Camden Lock West Yard is a fantastic place for lunch, with its delicious and cheap food The market isn't just a shopper's paradise. There are always tons of, like dancers and live music. You can stay late and enjoy the cool.....too! Camden is also famous for its alternative culture. Punks, injackets with pink and green Mohican hairstyles, are often in the market. There are also lots of people in crazy costumes, like characters from "Alice in Wonderland"!

The market is open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., seven days a week, 364 days a year. (It's closed on Christmas Day).