

UNIT 6. MAGNETISM
TWO MAGNETS INTERACTION

1. Match to make true sentences.

The magnets push each other away

a pole with the opposite charge.

Each pole is attracted to

there are two things that can happen.

The magnets come together because identical poles repel each other.

If you put any two magnets together,

because the opposite poles attract each other.