

Write a text about this invention. Remember using the PAST.

(You can check the dossier for help)

| Inventor                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Invention                                                                                            | Year | Nationality |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-------------|
| Peter Henlein                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | The first watch | 1505 | German      |
| Description: small portable watch First: watches pendant or attach to clothing Today: watches to wear on our wrists. Objective: to know the time everywhere and anytime.  |                                                                                                      |      |             |

Peter Henlein _____ the first world watch in _____.

He _____ German.

It _____ the first _____ watch.

First, watches _____ pendant or _____ to clothing.

Today, watches _____ to wear on our _____.

The objective _____ to know the _____ everywhere and at any time.