The Island of Bohol

Three years ago, I took a trip to the beautiful Island of Bohol. This is an Island located in the South near the Province of Cebu. If you come from Manila, you can either take a plane or a cruise liner to get there. (Simple) put, the Island of Bohol is the hidden jewel of the South Pacific and has left me with (beauty) memories forever.

Aside from its pristine white-sand beaches and the Chocolate Hills, Bohol's tourism assets also include centuries-old churches and towers. You can find magnificent scuba diving havens, majestic falls, (mystic) caves and (history) landmarks. Yet, the primitive and exotic fauna is something you don't want to miss.

There are many things you can do in Bohol to make your holiday (enjoy). For example, you can hire a boat to bring you to one of the Islands where you can buy fresh seafood or eat in a (float) restaurant. You can also take a dive or have a swim in the clear blue sea with the (amaze) shorelines. In addition, the local people are very warm and (friend) so they will be happy to take you to (variety) interesting places.

In short, the island of Bohol is an (astound) oasis of bliss. If you are looking for the perfect vacation to relax and enjoy yourself, this is the place.
