

It's not too difficult really...observe carefully, repeat the rules and exceptions then practice away!

c and z are exceptions

-ble	-dle	-fle	-kle	-gle	-ple	-stle	-tle*	-cle*	-zle*
humble	bundle	muffle	ankle	juggle	ample	castle	title	cycle	puzzle
cable	candle	rifle	tackle	eagle	topple	bristle	cattle	article	dazzle
table	needle	sniffle	pickle	giggle	example	jostle	settle	uncle	fizzle
scribble	cuddle	truffle	wrinkle	single	temple	wrestle	battle	circle	muzzle double	handle	shuffle	freckle	angle	simple	hustle	little	particle	embezzle
grumble	hurdle	baffle	sparkle	smuggle	couple	bustle	brittle	miracle	guzzle
trouble	meddle	stifle	twinkle	wriggle	people	whistle	startle	obstacle	frazzle

Complete the missing letters from the words in the following sentences.

Fill fresh water in the bot_ _ _

Walk away from trou_ _ _ when you can.

The worm will wri_ _ _ _ if you pull it out of the mud.

Read the new arti_ _ _ on the war.

As soon as the whi_ _ _ _ blows, run to the field.

Do you like solving jigsaw puz_ _ _ ?

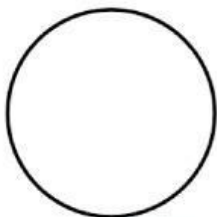

A tem_ _ _ is a place of worship.

Did you learn to construct ang_ _ _ in geometry class?

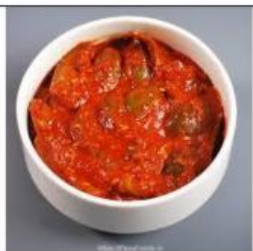

Listen and spell.

Write your own sentences using the pictures as clues.

Watch the video (Nessy)

❖ Exception words are:

Some nuns run very well

Letters s n v w are NEVER followed by -le

*c and *z are exceptions

Listen	Tall, tail or same size	Spell

Sort and complete the words in the correct column.

Word		-le	-el ang ang squirr hot kett guzz

Listen and spell. It's a mixed bag 😊

Watch the video to consolidate your learning.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mnzARYVrifs>

Read the story and list the -le and -el words in the correct columns.

The cruel wizard Hansel imprisoned a poor damsel in a castle. The humble people walked to the chapel and to their guardian angel prayed, to bless them in the battle. Dressed in grey flannel they decided to travel. To the stable they went and horses they saddled. The hazel hunting spaniels from kennels they took. Hansel dressed in tinsel, atop his magical squirrel sat with a kestrel perched on his arm.

What a battle it was! Terrible rumble as men jostled to kill Hansel and free the damsel. Hansel was certainly in a pickle. So, he dropped through a magical funnel and escaped to a tunnel under the castle. Then mounted on his flying camel, the wizard flew holding his precious jewel.

On a table in the castle, stood a candle and a parcel. In the corner was a barrel, a chisel and a simple puzzle. Oh! It was a riddle for the simple people.

-le	-el

You can add more words to the list.