

The background of the worksheet is a vibrant yellow, decorated with various colorful illustrations of scientific concepts. These include several Bohr-style atomic models with blue nuclei and orbiting electrons in pink, green, and yellow. There are also blue test tubes, some containing green liquid with bubbles, and others containing red liquid with green dots. Additionally, there are blue, amoeba-like cells with internal organelles and yellow, dome-shaped structures. The title 'Calistung Workbook' is centered in a white rectangular box with a blue border.
