

Prepositions

Choose the correct prepositions in each sentence.

- Harry and Sally went school the bus.
Nala saw a bird fly the pond its nest.
Some ballerinas leapt the stage gracefully.
The elephant took the apple its trunk.
They baked a cake Fred's birthday June.
We crawled the fence and the park.
 seven o'clock the morning we will leave.
The number four is three and five.

Read each sentence carefully, then choose whether each word chosen is a preposition (yes) or not (no).

- The baby slept under a blanket on a mattress.
John worked on his presentation before going to work.
Newton served chicken curry with naan bread and chutney.
Some oak trees grew along the beautiful path.
Roald Dahl wrote a book about scary witches.
The Duke of York marched up and down a hill with his men.
Yun ran through the class and helped to clean the spill.
The hut was built on a hill above a beautiful stream.