

1. What is the regularity of the family cleaning day discussed in the email?
 - A. Once per week
 - B. Twice a month
 - C. On a daily basis

2. In line with the email, how does the family feel after completing the cleaning day?
 - A. Fatigued
 - B. Content
 - C. Uninterested

3. What specific duties is Mark assigned during the cleaning day?
 - A. Straightening up the room, hydrating plants, and cleaning the kitchen
 - B. Entire house cleaning
 - C. Walking the pet

4. Which cleaning duty does Mark discover demanding and not enjoyable?
 - A. Straightening up the room
 - B. Hydrating plants
 - C. Cleaning the bathrooms, particularly the toilets

5. How does Mark's mom feel about his performance in cleaning the bathrooms?
 - A. She commends him
 - B. She critiques him
 - C. She avoids mentioning it

6. What task is entrusted to Mark's brother during the cleaning day?
 - A. Cleaning the bathrooms

- B. Walking the dog
- C. Straightening up the room

7. What is Mark's occasional desire concerning his brother's tasks?

- A. He wishes his brother had more tasks.
- B. He wishes he could swap duties with his brother.
- C. He wishes his brother would assist him with his tasks.

8. What topic does Mark inquire about in the email?

- A. Laura's favorite pastimes
- B. Laura's opinions on household duties
- C. Laura's recent travels

9. How does Mark portray the job of walking the dog in comparison to his own tasks?*

- A. Mark finds walking the dog challenging.
- B. Mark wishes he could exchange duties with his brother because walking the dog seems simpler.
- C. Mark enjoys walking the dog more than his own duties.

10. What sentiments or attitudes does Mark express about the family cleaning day in the email?*

- A. Monotony
- B. Enthusiasm
- C. Contradictory feelings