

1. There was a bottle of mineral water on the table. CARBON
2. Our factory does not emit any into the atmosphere. POLLUTE
3. It has the second largest of a national park in Africa. DIVERSION
4. Carbon is heavier than air, it won't float. OXYGEN
5. He was the brains behind the design of a new artificial ski slope in Denmark's capital Copenhagen, built on the roof of a huge that burns waste to produce heat and electricity.
INCINERATION
6. However other "big " like America do not want the treaty to come into force until after 2020. EMIT
7. We must get more countries on board, and it is your duty to take care of this.
INDUSTRY
8. The large number of plastic bottles that are land-filled on the relatively small island are expected to cause environmental problems in the future. DEGRADE
9. Control and is a professional job involving trying to exclude the insects from the building and trying to kill those already present. TERMINATE
10. aquatic invasive species is rarely practical, and most managers in North America now focus on containment and ongoing population suppression. ERADICATE
11. These two plants are used in similar ways, but differ CHEMISTRY
12. The of the rainforest is threatened by companies that cut down trees. EXIST
13. Examples of energy are wind and solar powers. NEW
14. Solar is the energy given off by the sun in all directions. RADIANT
15. Alaska is already home to 60 percent of the country's areas. WILD
16. Just past the museum, a large, open area comes into view. GRASS
17. This industry does not deserve the environmentalist which is often heaped upon it. HOSTILE
18. Plastic pollution is more than unsightly. It has a and direct effect on wildlife. DISASTER
19. The brain begins to suffer damage after four to six minutes without oxygen.
REVERSE
20. The goal of the talks is eliminating pesticide usage on wetlands, but the negotiations have been complicated by a host of related issues. MOUNT
21. Forests in Latvia will never have fully recovered from the stupid policy of cutting down trees for export. CATASTROPHE
22. I feel that the time has come for changes in our approach towards goods we buy.
SUBSTANCE
23. manure contributes major pollutants and has become a growing problem in many areas. LIFE
24. Businesses continue to for plastic giants even amid new regulations. FLOUR
25. Soil is the physical, chemical and biological decline in soil quality. DEGRADE
26. In my opinion, it's the government who should be a major to the development of new recycling policies. CONTRIBUTE
27. The effects of soil go beyond the loss of fertile land. EROSIVE
28. It has led to increased pollution and in streams and rivers, clogging these waterways and causing declines in fish and other species. SEDIMENT
29. They probably do contribute massively to the of our rivers. ACID
30. There are food in most regions of Africa. SCARCE