

Song - "Eleanor Rigby", by The Beatles

1.- Choose (or guess) the correct option to complete the lyrics. Then listen to the song and correct if necessary.

Refrain:

Ah, look at every / all the lonely people
Ah, look at every / all the lonely people

Eleanor Rigby

Picks up the flowers / rice in the church
Where a wedding / funeral has been
Lives in a dream / the street
Waits at the window / doorstep,
Wearing the face / mask that she keeps
In a jar / box by the door
Who is it from / for?

Chorus:

Every / All the lonely people
Where do / did they all come from?
Every / All the lonely people
Where / When do they all belong?

Mister / Father McKenzie

Writing the words of a lecture / sermon that no one will hear

No one comes here / near

Look at him working / writing,

Darning his socks in the night / evening

When there's no one / nobody there

What / Why does he care?

Chorus

Ah, look at every / all the lonely people

Ah, look at every / all the lonely people

Eleanor Rigby

Died in the church / the square and was buried

Along with her fame / name

Nobody / Everyone came

Father McKenzie

Wiping the dirt from his trousers / hands

As / When he walks from the grave

No one was safe / saved

Chorus

2.- Do you remember?

Without looking back at the lyrics, fill in the gaps in these sentences with the correct preposition:

Look _____ those people! What are they doing?

Pick _____ your clothes, please. The floor's not their place!

She keeps the sugar _____ a glass jar.

The dog was waiting _____ the door.

Who is that letter _____? Oh, I know! You're writing to Uncle Jim, aren't you?

Where do those people come _____? Are they French?

The priest was writing the words _____ a sermon.

He wiped the sweat _____ his forehead.

When the funeral was over we all walked away _____ the grave slowly.

3.- What is the singular of "people"? _____
Write the missing words in this chart:

singular	plural
man	_____
_____	children
woman	_____
_____	teeth
goose	_____
_____	mice