

CHROME BROWSER

Web browsers are [] that allow users to [] view web pages ¹. Some of the names of web browsers are ^{2 3 1}:

- []
- Mozilla Firefox
- Apple Safari
- []
- Opera
- []
- Vivaldi

The school uses Google Chrome

When you use [], such as Gmail and Google Calendar, for work or school, you

[]

[], you can:

- [] that appear instantly as you enter text.
- [] and settings across all your devices.
- Use Google Workspace products, such as [] and more.
- Add to your browser's [] with [] such as photo editors and [].

Note: Your [] might apply [] the Chrome browser for your organization. To see if your admin is [], in your address bar, enter chrome://settings OR click top right > Settings. At the top, your browser is managed by your organization appears.

If you have [], such as a personal Gmail account and a school account, you can easily identify and sign in to your accounts in the Chrome browser.

1. Go to google.com.

- If you're signed in to your browser, [], you'll see an [] or []
- If you're not signed in to an account, []

2. [] or click your profile photo or initial. You'll [] with:

- If the email address [], you're logged in with your []
- If the email address ends in [] address ([]), you're signed into your [] account.
- If you chose a [] of your Google accounts, the []

CHROME BROWSER

Make Chrome Your Default Browser

Your school Chromebook is .

Set your homepage

Your homepage appears

1. On your computer, open Chrome.
2. At the top > Settings.
3. , " turn on Show Home button.
4. Below " , " choose to or a custom page

The of your address bar.

Learn more at the Google Chrome Help Center

Set Your Startup Page

You can set which page or pages appear (your startup page).

Start Chrome on a new tab

You can have Chrome Chrome.

1. On your computer,
2. At the > Settings.
3. On the .
4. Click .

Continue Where You Left Off

Tell Chrome to at when you quit.

1. On your computer, open Chrome.
2. At the top right, click More > Settings.