Grammar U6_1ESO

English Department

1 Complete the sentences with the comparative or superlative form of a suitable adjective in brackets.

1. Lakes are ..... oceans. (wide / small / huge)
2. Jay has got blond hair. Les has got brown hair. David has got black hair. David has got ..... hair. (long / curly / dark)
3. Parrots are ..... bats. (amazing / wild / colourful)
4. Mountains are ..... hills. (bad / big / short)
5. Asia is ..... continent in the world. (old / large / young)
6. Sue is 12. Debbie and Lisa are 13. Sue is ..... girl. (old / young / tall)

2 Complete the second sentence so it has got a similar meaning to the first. Use the adjectives below and (not) as ... as.

pretty • tall • old • fat

1. Butterflies are beautiful but flies aren't good-looking.

   Flies ..... butterflies.
2. Jane and Ella have got the same birthday – 27 May 2000.

   Jane ..... Ella.
3. The height of that giraffe is 5.00 metres. My height is 1.85 metres.

   I ..... the giraffe.
4. My cat and your cat both weigh five kilos!

   My cat ..... your cat.

3 Complete the sentences about a family of four chimpanzees in a nature reserve. Use to be, (not) as ... as or the comparative or superlative form of the adjectives below.

big • athletic • friendly • heavy • frightening • old

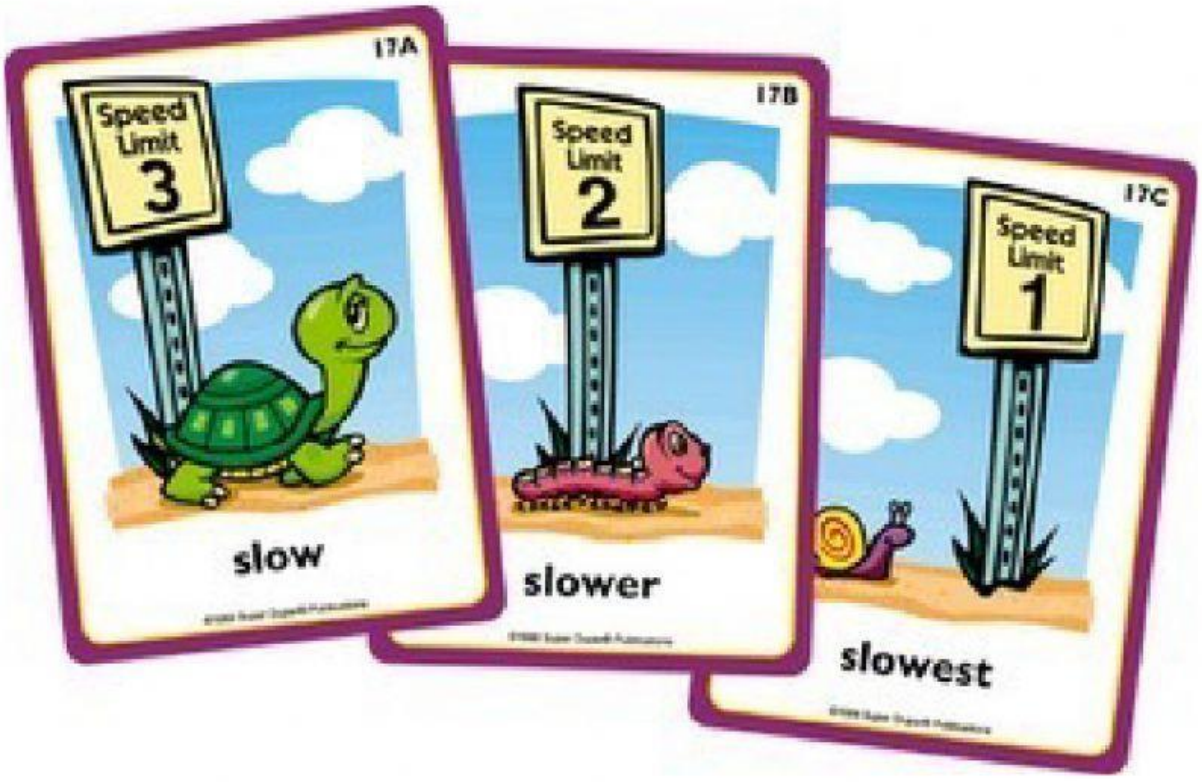

1. The mother chimpanzee is 14 years old and the father is 16 years old. The babies are six months old. The father ..... chimpanzee.
2. The father looks huge next to the mother. The father ..... the mother.
3. The babies both weigh eight kilos. The male baby ..... the female baby.
4. The female baby can jump from tree to tree. The male baby can't jump far. He ..... his sister.
5. The babies like humans but their parents are shy. The babies ..... their parents.
6. Chimpanzees, zebras and lions are wild animals, but lions ..... of the three.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4 Complete the text about sharks with the adjectives in brackets. Use to be and the correct form of the comparative or superlative or (not) as ... as.

Scuba diving with sharks is becoming a very popular activity. Diving [1].....
(adventurous) than ordinary water sports, and diving with sharks [2].....
(exciting) type of diving. It is an amazing experience! People often dive with sand tiger sharks. These sharks [3]..... (strong) than ordinary fish, but don't worry – they never eat people. They are big sharks but they [4]..... (huge) as great white sharks. At three metres from head to tail, they [5]..... (long) than a human. Sand tiger sharks [6]..... (shy) as other fish, so you can swim near them. But they [7]..... (friendly) of all fish, so you can't play with them. However, you can watch them and take photos of them.

Remember

LIVEWORKSHEETS