

one's own flesh and blood  Meaning:          one's family member  Example:          How could you do this to me? You're my son! My own flesh and blood!          www.EnglishLessons.Online	ON THE SAME WAVELENGTH          - to agree, to believe or act in the same way  Example: I'm relieved to hear that we're on the same wavelength about this problem.	A Fair Weather Friend    An Opportunist Friend Who Disappears in Your Difficult Times
--	---	---

Apple of your eye  Meaning:          The person who you love most.  Harry was his first child and the apple of his eye.          www.english.com	Go with the flow  Meaning:          To accept things as they happen and do what everyone else wants to do.  Don't always try to be different. Go with the flow sometimes.          www.english.com	LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON          www.english.com  Meaning:          SONS ARE VERY SIMILAR TO THEIR FATHERS  MY FATHER IS A DOCTOR, I AM A DOCTOR, AND MY SON IS IN MEDICAL SCHOOL. LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON.
--	--	---

GET ON WITH  DEFINITION: to have a friendly relationship with someone.  Get along with is an inseparable phrasal verb. This means that the object cannot be placed in between the verb and someone/something.          ✓ My friends get along with each other.          ✗ My friends get someone along with.          ✗ My friends get along someone with.  EXAMPLE: Even though my friends are different from each other, we get along with each other very well.	Build Bridges            to help two people, groups, or countries who have disagreed to have a more friendly relationship  TENDER PUENTES          "Cultural exchanges are a way of building bridges between countries"	Birds of a Feather    PEOPLE WHO HAVE SIMILAR CHARACTERISTICS
---	---	---

to be (as) thick as thieves
 to be very close or friendly

Here are some phrases and idioms that might help you describe the relationships in the photos. Fill in the gaps in the sentences below with a suitable phrase or idiom.

My flesh and blood - on the same wavelength - a fair-weather friend the apple of his eye - to go with the flow - like father, like son get on with - to build bridges - birds of a feather - are thick as thieves

1. Sarah and I have been friends for ages, so we _____ each other really well.
2. There were five of us in the group, but he definitely preferred Emily. She was _____.
3. My father was a talented goalkeeper that everyone admired. I wish I were as good as he was. I wish people would say: "_____".
4. Only bands that share the same ideas and values, in other words are _____, could exist for decades.
5. Our project aims _____ between different generations: the youth and the elderly.
6. I must admit there is a mutual understanding between my daughters and me. And this can be easily explained: they are _____.
7. You are a very friendly family. My siblings and I _____ if something goes wrong.
8. I was a new member of the team. Neither did I know the people nor the rules, so I decided _____.
9. I was shocked when I realised John wouldn't help me. It became clear he is _____.
10. My friend and I are _____. We both like watching horror films and playing video games.