RELATIVE CLAUSES

Join the sentences with a relative pronoun (who, which, whose):

1. I lent you a few pens. They were multicoloured.

_____

2. Mary has decided to buy a motorbike. It is brand new.

_____

3. We visited a place. I heard about it on the news.

_____

4. The man speaks English very well. He comes from France.

_____

5. This woman is in hospital. Her husband sat next to you in our office meeting.

_____

6. My school is old. Its walls are falling.

_____

7. Do you know the girl? She plays soccer every weekend.

_____

8. The book was very thick. I had to read it.

_____

9. I sent an email to my brother. He lives in Australia.

_____

10. A boy was playing football in the park. His sister was in my class.

_____

11. The woman was scared. She gave the money to the robber.

_____

12. He didn't wait at the traffic lights. They were red.

_____

13. These are the keys. They were missing for two days.

_____

14. Did you know the men? They were wearing black suits.

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS