Select a word from the box to complete the sentences.

four	chew	sharp	incisors	larger	molars
primary	second

- The main job of the teeth is to _____ food.
- _____ teeth are our first set of teeth. They fall out as we grow.
- The _____ set of teeth are the permanent teeth. Humans have 32 of them
- Humans have _____ different types of teeth.
- The flat front teeth are called _____. They cut food into smaller pieces, like scissors cut paper.
- Canines are pointy and _____. They tear food apart.
- Premolars are _____, flatter teeth next to the canines. They help us to grind the food we eat.
- The largest teeth way in the back of the mouth are the _____. They crush and grind the food.

LIVEWORKSHEETS