

Module 4: Money Matters • Lesson 2: Grammar

WHAT'S FOR LUNCH?

1. CATEGORIZE Write a "C" in the box if it's a count noun. Write an "N" in the box if it's a noncount noun.

 a. tomatoes

 h. meat

 b. bread

 i. apples

 c. onions

 j. juice

 d. lemons

 k. cereal

 e. carrots

 l. Milk

 f. berries

 m. Eggs

 g. potatoes

 n. rice

2. Click on the correct word.

A: What's for lunch today?

B: We can cook a / some meat.

A: Are there any / a vegetables?

B: Yes. There are three / an potatoes and any / an onion.

A: We can cook the potatoes with the meat.

B: There's also any / some cake.

A: Good!

3. INTERPRET Look at the shopping basket. Complete the sentences below. Use There is / isn't / are / aren't and some / any / a / an.

1. There isn't any cheese in the shopping basket.
2. _____ onion in the shopping basket.
3. _____ eggs in the shopping basket.
4. _____ carrots in the shopping basket.
5. _____ ice cream in the shopping basket.
6. _____ cereal in the shopping basket.
7. _____ tomato in the shopping basket.

Module 4: Money Matters • Lesson 4: Grammar

DO YOU HAVE ...?

1. Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence.

- The library don't / doesn't have a computer.
- The supermarket have / has fresh fruit.
- Our neighbors don't has / have any milk.
- Newspapers and magazines have / has coupons.
- My phone don't / doesn't have a weather app.

2. COMMUNICATE Look at the chart. You are talking to your friend Maria. Ask Maria questions with "Do you have...?" about her building or apartment.

Friends	TV	Computer	Dishwasher	Books	Elevator
☒	☐	☒	☒	☐	☒

		Question	Answer
1.	FRIENDS	Example: Do you have friends in your building?	Yes, I do.
2.	TV	Example: Do you have a TV in your apartment?	No, I don't
3.	COMPUTER
4.	DISHWASHER
5.	BOOKS
6.	ELEVATOR

3. Write two sentences about what Maria has and two sentences about what she doesn't have.

EXAMPLE: Maria has friends in her building.

She doesn't have a TV in her apartment.
