

Listen and fill in these blanks

Ms Thuỳ English

You will hear Jack talking to his friend Martin about music.

Jack: Hi Martin. Have you heard the new 'Sunny Days' song? I love it.

Martin: Me too, Jack. (1) _____ it on my guitar.

Jack: I'd love to play the guitar.

Martin: You should learn! I go to classes with Steve from football. We're (2) _____. Our teacher, Peter, is fantastic! He used to play with the group Harry's Band.

Jack: Wow! Is there a class on Friday?

Martin: I don't know. I go on Tuesdays now, but next term I'm changing to Thursdays.

Jack: How often do you (3) _____?

Martin: During the week, an hour or two, and on Saturdays three hours with my band. We're called The Red Chillies!

Jack: Cool.

Martin: Actually, we're playing in the (4) _____ on Saturday. Do you want to come?

Jack: I'd like to see you play, but what's the festival like?

Martin: Really great. (5) _____, the bands are all local like mine, and tickets aren't too expensive.

Jack: Then I'll come. And I'll bring my (6) _____.

Martin: Great. I have to get there at 6:15, and we play at 7:45.

Jack: (7) _____ at seven and (8) _____ before you go on stage?

Martin: Perfect.

Listen and fill in these blanks

You will hear Lisa talking to her friend Robert about computers.

Robert: Hi Lisa. How are you?

Lisa: Great. I've just got (1) _____.

Robert: Where did you buy it?

Lisa: (2) _____. I went to the shop on the High Street, and I also looked in a new one on Green Street but they were very expensive, so I bought it (3) _____.

Robert: I've only looked at websites. Parks-computers.com didn't (4) _____. The same was true for new laptop.com, but buy-a-computer.com was great ... Is your new laptop (5) _____?

Lisa: It's one and a half kilogrammes, but my old one was three kilogrammes. The best ones these days are only one kilogramme!

Robert: And was it (6) _____?

Lisa: Well, the one I really wanted cost £849! I didn't get it. The (7) _____ showed me one for £579, but it didn't have enough memory. I spent £699 in the end ... What do you need a laptop for?

Robert: I want to use it at university every day. And

(8) _____ my brother

(9) _____ for his camera shop.

Lisa: That sounds interesting!

Listen and fill in these blanks

You will hear James talking to his friend Susan about his holiday.

Susan: Are you (1) _____ about your holiday, James?

James: Yes!

Susan: How long are you away for?

James: Three weeks. Some friends (2) _____ at my house for two weeks. And my cousin will be there for the final week. I'll be home on the 30th.

Susan: Where exactly are you going?

James: Miami and Paris. There are (3) _____ to France from Manchester every day, so I'm spending a few days exploring Paris before flying to Miami.

Susan: Amazing!

James: (4) Have you ever been to the USA, Susan?

Susan: Not yet. I went to Mexico when I was younger, and (5) _____ in January, but I'd like to visit the USA next year. How long's the flight to Miami?

James: Eight and a half hours, which is OK. But (6) _____, so I'm sure I will just want to go to bed when I arrive.

Susan: Shall I meet you (7) _____ when you get back?

James: Yes, please. I arrive at 5:35 in the afternoon.

Susan: The arrivals hall (8) _____ then. And it'll be hard to find a space in the car park. I'll (9) _____, by the exit.

James: I know where you mean. Great, thanks.