

Activity 8

Complete the diagram below by filling the missing blocks.

Research through the internet and select a robot you liked. Look for more information over the internet about the robot you selected and answer the following:

What kind of structural components the robot is made of?