

Sam's dish

Once, in a small kitchen, Sam wanted to cook something nice. Sam got vegetables, meat, and rice. First, Sam cut the vegetables into small pieces. Then, Sam cooked them in a pan with oil. Next, Sam added the meat and stirred everything together. The kitchen smelled really good! After that, Sam cooked the rice and some vegetables in another pot. When everything was ready, Sam put the food on a plate and sat down to eat. It was a simple dish, but Sam felt very happy. Cooking was great, and the food tasted delicious!
