

Find the number that would be between the two numbers on the number line below. Then write the number in the boxes below the mark.

