

Object Pronouns

Remember:

The teacher sees Steven. I need to talk to the students. We walk into the hotel.
The teacher sees him. I need to talk to them. We walk into it.

C. Circle the object pronoun in each sentence.

She is talking to him at the office.

1. The teacher listens to them.
2. Don't forget to pick me up tomorrow.
3. I am glad to see you today!
4. Can they help us carry the box?
5. Did we see her yesterday?
6. Give the books to them, please.

D. Rewrite the sentences. Use the correct object pronoun.

1. I bought a gift for Jack and Jessie.

2. Mrs. Ball gave Anna an A on the test.

3. Aunt Cathy is making a cake for Danny.

4. There is a lot of candy for you and me.

5. I'm buying these clothes for my cousin Marty.

6. Brian will go to the supermarket with Mom.
