Visiting Norway - Worksheet

Travel Bug: Hello guys, I'm in Oslo next week. Any ideas for interesting places to visit? Thanks.

23 January, 12:23
MaryLou: Oslo is fantastic! The city centre is really small with some beautiful streets. There are many cafés, restaurants and unique shops. And some of the buildings are amazing! You must visit The Norwegian National Opera & Ballet and the Norwegian Museum of Cultural History. In the afternoon, you can go on a boat ride on the Oslo Fjord.

Travel Bug: Thank you!! Is there a good, not very expensive, hotel in Oslo? Near the city centre, if possible.

23 January, 13:55
MaryLou: Yes. There is a hotel on Piles Street: it's called Scandic Oslo City. It is really close to the famous Vigeland Park. The staff are very friendly and it's cheap.

23 January, 14:48
Travel Bug: Thanks!! Are there any good restaurants near the hotel?

23 January, 15:10
MaryLou: There are many. My favourite restaurant is Kristtops. It is just about 200 meters from the hotel and the food is great.

Oswald: And there is also a nice spa on Gwebdollyn Street. You can have a massage and relax in the sauna. There are many mountains you can hike, too. It's great. Enjoy!
