

When do I use capital letters?

1 Tick the correct sentence in each pair.

- 1 a She explained that Thai food often requires a lot of ingredients.
b She explained that thai food often requires a lot of ingredients.
- 2 a Sixty percent of students enrolled at the university are male.
b Sixty percent of students enrolled at the University are male.

Capital letters are always used for nouns in the following groups:

- countries: Germany, the United States, Britain, the Czech Republic, etc.
- towns, cities, states and regions: Tokyo, Paris, Texas, New South Wales, etc.
- nationalities, ethnic groups and religions – referring to people, languages or things from a country, region or culture:

Can you speak Chinese?

You can hear he's South African from his accent.

a Buddhist temple

I'd like to learn more about Asian culture.

- months and days of the week: October, 9th April, Tuesday, Sunday, etc.

★ Capital letters are not used for the seasons: spring, summer, autumn, winter

- names of organisations and institutions: the United Nations, the National Museum
Where a word like museum, university, station or hospital is part of the name of an institution, it has a capital letter: Harvard University, Karachi Station, Rome Airport
However, when these words are not part of a name, they do not have a capital letter:
They built a new 100-bed hospital in the provincial capital.

He first joined the company in 2003.

★ Also remember: the Earth (but not ~~the World~~), the Third World/a Third World country, AIDS, CD/DVD (plural CDs/DVDs).
