

Paragraph Organization

Objective: To read passages, write a good paragraph, and identify the main idea appropriately.

Direction: Drag and drop the sentences below to make a good paragraph.

1

A. Without education an individual cannot progress intellectually and cannot develop skills and capacities to work.

B. Education is especially important for every individual person and society.

C. Next, education fosters the enlightenment, empowerment, and emancipation of society.

D. Firstly, education helps in the mental and intellectual nourishment and growth of a person.

E. Without education a society will be socially, economically, and politically backward.

1

2

3

4

5

วิชาสามัญ ปี 64 Source: <https://www.sangfans.com/testeng-sanam/>

2

A. To start, take a tip from the consultants who coach executives on how to handle media-interviews.

B. Job candidates must answer the queries of employers, says John Barford of Genesis, the interview training firm.

C. They give a number of useful tips.

D. There are many ways to answer any interview question.

E. To sum up, you can quickly make the transition from your answer to the important points you want to convey about your qualifications.

1

2

3

4

5

3

A. This often results in meeting locals and experiencing their lives and traditions first hand.

B. For starters, walking through a city allows the visitor to see the details of an area without having to hurry.

C. Travelers taking walking tours are rewarded with firsthand experiences in the places they visit and the opportunity to personally interact with the people who live there.

D. Furthermore, walking tours are flexible and inexpensive because there are no strict schedules or transportation expenses.

E. There are many reasons why I enjoy walking tours when visiting new cities.

1

2

3

4

5

Source: <https://purdueglobalwriting.center/topic-sentence-and-paragraph-organization/>