

1 Watch, listen and enjoy.*2 Listen put in the words in brackets in the correct form.

Hello, it's me
I (wonder) if after all these years you'd like to meet
To go over everything
They say that time's supposed to heal ya
But I ain't done much healing
Hello, can you hear me?
I'm in California dreaming about who we used to be
When we (be) younger and free
I (forget) how it (feel)
Before the world (fall) at our feet

3 Listen and order the sentence

million there's such a between and difference us miles a

4 Listen and put in the correct subject.

Hello from the other side
I must have called a thousand times
To tell you I'm sorry for everything that I've done
But when I call you never seem to be home
Hello from the outside
At least I can say that I've tried
To tell you I'm sorry for breaking your heart
But doesn't matter, clearly doesn't tear you apart
Anytime

5 Listen, put in the correct preposition

Hello, how are you?
It's so typical me to talk myself, I'm sorry
I hope that you're well
Did you ever make it out that town
Where nothing ever happened?
It's no secret that the both us
Are running out time

6 Fill in the table with the missing forms of the verbs

| basic form | the 2-nd form | the 3rd form |
|------------|---------------|--------------|
| go         |               | supposed     |
|            | were          |              |
|            | fell          | forgotten    |
|            |               | called       |
|            |               | done         |
|            |               | tried        |
| tear       |               |              |

7 Fill in the table with the missing forms of the adjectives

| basic form | comparative | superlative |
|------------|-------------|-------------|
| free       | younger     |             |
|            |             | least       |

8 Listen and read the lyrics out*9 Match the words with the definitions

|                      |                                                                                                                                        |
|----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                      | Being in good physical or mental condition.                                                                                            |
|                      | Reaching a point where there is no more of a particular item or resource.                                                              |
| to heal              |                                                                                                                                        |
| to be supposed to    | To rip, shred, or separate something into pieces forcefully.                                                                           |
| to seem to           | To successfully emerge or escape from a difficult or dangerous situation.                                                              |
| to tear apart        |                                                                                                                                        |
| to be typical of smb | Referring to the entirety or combination of two specified things or individuals.                                                       |
| to be well           | To be expected or required to do something, often based on social norms, rules, or a prior agreement.                                  |
| to make it out       | Suggesting a probability or possibility without certainty.                                                                             |
| both of              | The process of recovering from an injury, illness, or emotional distress, leading to the restoration of physical or mental well-being. |
| to run out of        | Reflecting the usual qualities or traits associated with a particular person or group.                                                 |