

What measures will your city take? Make a list! Each member of the group writes 2 or 3 measures and passes the computer to the next classmate.

A large, empty white rectangular box with rounded corners, intended for students to write their list of measures.

Members of the group: