

Present Continuous – Practice 2

I. Complete the paragraph. Use the affirmative or negative form of the verbs in brackets in the present continuous.

Carol and Dan are at the library, but they are not studying now. Carol _____ (write) a letter. Her American History book is on the table, but she _____ (read) the history book. Carol _____ (sit) next to Dan. He _____ (look) at a magazine. Dan's biology book is in front of him, but he _____ (use) his biology book. Carol and Dan _____ (relax). They _____ (take) a break which means they _____ (work) now.

II. Correct these sentences. Don't forget to add the correct punctuation.

1. The doctor is work at the hospital.

Example: The doctor is working at the hospital.

2. Are Doug buying groceries?

3. Norma no is teaching.

4. Why is Pete do the laundry?

5. What you doing?

6. He yawn because he's tired.

7. We're no studying now.

8. Doug is eating and is drinking alone.