

GIU.U76. The 4. Further Practice

The + adj = adj people/ things

Fill in the blanks in the sentences with given words in the box rich poor unemployed young old elderly homeless sick disabled dead injured

1. The often enjoy sharing stories of their youth with their grandchildren.
2. The require access to quality healthcare services for proper treatment.
3. The face challenges in finding stable employment in today's economy.
4. The often face challenges with mobility and healthcare as they age.
5. Many of the are struggling to find work despite their efforts to apply for numerous job vacancies.
6. The are the future leaders of our society, and it's crucial to invest in their education and development.
7. The are remembered and honored by their loved ones during memorial services.
8. In this affluent neighborhood, it's common to see the driving luxury cars and living in mansions.
9. Volunteers distribute warm blankets and clothing to the in need in the streets.
10. Despite their wealth, the often face unique challenges and pressures in maintaining their status and wealth.
11. The government announced new measures to support the during the economic downturn.

12. Local shelters provide support and resources for the population in our city.
13. Job fairs offer opportunities for the to connect with potential employers and explore career options.
14. Medical professionals work tirelessly to provide care and treatment for the in hospitals.
15. The struggle to make ends meet, often living paycheck to paycheck and facing financial insecurity.
16. Accessibility measures are essential for ensuring the can navigate public spaces with ease.
17. Many programs aim to support the by providing mentorship, resources, and opportunities for growth.
18. The have access to exclusive clubs and amenities that cater to their affluent lifestyle.
19. Emergency responders rushed to the scene to assist the after the accident.
20. Families gathered to mourn the and pay their respects at the funeral.
21. The often lack access to basic necessities such as healthcare, education, and affordable housing.
22. The have the privilege of being able to travel the world and indulge in luxury experiences.
23. Charitable organizations work tirelessly to alleviate the suffering of the and provide them with assistance and resources.
24. Emergency responders provided immediate medical attention to the at the scene of the accident.
25. Accessible ramps and elevators are provided to accommodate the in public buildings.