UNIT 3

WILD WEATHER

Vocabulary and Speaking

Weather

THINK ABOUT IT

What kind of weather do you like best?
How does it make you feel?

1 1.30 Listen and repeat the different kinds of weather. What's the weather like today?

sunny rainy windy snowy stormy cloudy damp icy foggy warm wet dry thunder and lightning blizzard heatwave hailstones

Exercise 2

Possible answers

In Tokyo it's stormy.
In Sydney it's hot and sunny.
In Athens it's warm and cloudy.
In Madrid, it's wet and rainy.
In New York it's cold and snowy.

2 Look at the pictures. What's the weather like in ...

London? Tokyo? Sydney? Athens? Madrid? New York?

In London it's cold and foggy.

Exercise 3

1 Sydney
2 Tokyo
3 New York

3 In which city ...

1 is there a heatwave?
2 could you hear thunder and see lightning?
3 could you get caught in a blizzard?

LOOK!

in spring in summer
in autumn in winter

EXPRESS YOURSELF

4 Read about the weather in Sydney, Australia. Then change the red words to make the sentences true for your country.

In spring it's usually sunny and dry. In summer it's very hot and windy.
In autumn it's sometimes rainy and foggy.
In winter it's warm, but often stormy.

5 In what kind of weather do you do these activities? Ask and answer in pairs.

go windsurfing go skiing play volleyball play computer games

When do you go windsurfing?
I go windsurfing on windy days.

LIVEWORKSHEETS