

IRISH DANCERS

I'm / I am...

I've got/

I have got...

I'm wearing...

Here are six Irish dancers. They are practising their dance and getting ready for St Patrick's Day, which is on March the 17th. Saint Patrick is the patron saint of Ireland. All of the girls have got hearts and shamrocks on their dresses. The shamrock is our national symbol.

Read what the girls say about themselves and put the right number on the line.

A) Hello! I am tall. I've got light brown hair. I 'm wearing a blue dress with a pink pattern on the sleeves. My hairband is red. I am number ____

B) Hi there! I am of medium height. I've got ginger hair. My dress is light green with a yellow motif on the sleeves. I'm wearing a yellow hairband. I'm no ____

C) Top of the morning to you! I am very tall. I've got dark brown hair. My dress is purple with a pink pattern on the sleeves. My hairband is pink. So I am no. ____

D) Hi! I am a short girl! I've got black hair and I'm wearing a gold dress with a turquoise motif on the sleeves. My hairband is white. I'm dancer no. ____

E) Hello, how are you? I'm of average height. I've got light brown hair. I'm wearing a red dress with a turquoise pattern on the sleeves. I'm girl no. ____

F) So that leaves me! I'm in the front row and I'm smiling! I'm smiling because I love dancing. People say my hair is beautiful. It's blond and curly. My dress is dark green with light green shamrocks on it. My hairband is red. I'm dancer no. ____