

Countable and Uncountable Revision

A- Choose the correct answer in the spaces.

Zulaikha has a unique hobby of taking and collecting pictures. There are _____ of pictures in her album that she had taken since she was a teenager. There are _____ skyscrapers in her photographs but there are also _____ images of nature and sceneries. She loves doing photography and spent _____ time on it even though the cost for her hobby can be a bit expensive. However, it was a satisfying feeling when _____ of people praise her work.

Irfan went to the museum last week with _____ of his friends from school. He was given an information book that contained _____ of information about the traditional tools Bruneians used hundreds of years ago. He walked around and spent _____ time and talked about the interesting things that they found. Since it was the weekend, there were _____ people visiting the museum too therefore he had to patiently wait to see an exhibition. After the visit, Irfan and his friends went to a nearby café to have _____ snacks before returning home.