C Circle the correct answers to complete the conversation.

- Logan I've been <sup>1</sup>making / doing / getting good progress with my science project. I've almost finished it. How about you, Hayley?
- Hayley I'm getting <sup>2</sup>anywhere / nowhere / everywhere. Every time I try to find information on the internet, I start watching videos on YouTube. It's so easy to <sup>3</sup>make / get / waste time doing things that are not work!
- Logan I know. I used to have <sup>4</sup>progress / a chance / problems with that too. I put a program on my computer which stops me from visiting my favorite pages. Now I have no choice but to <sup>5</sup>concentrate / get / spend on my work!
- Hayley That's a great idea. Can you help me with something, Logan? I'm having <sup>6</sup>problem / trouble / progress with my book report for English. Have you done yours yet?
- Logan Not yet. In fact, I'm doing it now. The most important thing is to choose a book you like and start writing. Try not to worry. Just <sup>7</sup>make / have / do your best. The sooner you finish, the sooner you can <sup>8</sup>do / take / make it easy and relax!

The 10-Day Challenge

As part of our new Personal Development section, we are inviting you to do a 10-day challenge. Simply choose something you want to do, and do it every day for ten days. But it must be a challenge, of course! To give you some ideas, we spoke to four people who have decided to try the challenge.

I've been doing a ten-day no-complaint challenge. So now I can't say anything bad when my brother doesn't wash the dishes. It's also difficult when I'm watching sports, and my team plays poorly. If I last ten days, it will be a great achievement, but I don't think I will.

Luz – Mexico

I've been trying not to eat sugar for ten days. I didn't realize that sugar was in everything! I failed on the second day when I had some bread which contained sugar. I've stopped putting sugar in coffee and have found one breakfast cereal that doesn't include sugar! I have more energy, and I can concentrate better at work, but I need some chocolate soon! Three days to go!

João – Brazil

I've posted a black-and-white photo on Facebook every day for ten days. My life is not very exciting, so it was a challenge to find interesting subjects. My most popular photo was of my cat in front of a lamp. It wasn't planned, but the light made my cat look really mysterious.

Diego – Colombia

I've been writing in a diary for seven days. I think it will be easy to complete the challenge, but some days it's more difficult than others. I usually write about how I feel, but yesterday I wrote a poem. It's nice that the challenge is flexible – you can do what you like. It's been fun so far. In the future I hope to work as a journalist.
